The offender has not complied with the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number	Nature of Noncompliance
-------------------------	--------------------------------

1

The offender has violated the supervision condition which states ‘The defendant shall make restitution in the amount of $3,798,610.89. The defendant shall satisfy the amount due in monthly installments of no less than $200.00, to commence 30 days after release from confinement.’

The offender has been unable to satisfy the restitution in full, as ordered by the Court at sentencing on April 15, 2009. On April 24, 2017, the undersigned wrote the Court and advised Your Honor of the offender’s failure to submit monthly restitution payments as ordered. At that time, our Office requested that no action be taken. The offender was verbally reprimanded and instructed to commence making monthly payments of no less than $200 immediately. Since April 2017, Neely has been compliant with her restitution payments. To date, the offender has paid $38,493.42, and the outstanding restitution balance is $3,635,907.43.

U.S. Probation Officer Action:

The offender's term of supervision is scheduled to expire on May 30, 2019. We believe the offender has paid the restitution to the best of her financial ability. No Court action is requested at this time, and we recommend that the term of supervision be allowed to expire as scheduled. It should be noted that her case will be referred to the U.S. Attorney's Office, Financial Litigation Unit, for collection.

Respectfully submitted,

Elizabeth Villa
